Add On Course on Fundamentals of Indian Constitution :

7. Introduction :

Indian Constitution is a very vital document that rules the governmental and other aspects of public life. Hence, it is pertinent to know the gist of the constitutional mechanism of India.

8. Objective :

The Course aims at introducing the very basic aspects of the structural and operational parts of the constitutional system in India. The stakeholders of the course will be enlightened with the basic principles of constitutional governance of India that will inject in them the constitutional spirit of India thus enriching their attributes of responsible citizenship.

9. Course Outcome :

The Course envisages instilling in the participants the basic postulates of the constitutional fabric besides enriching them to make a critical appraisal of the contradictions that are apparent in the practice of the constitutional provisions.

10. Evaluation :

Assignment-based evaluation of students will be undertaken followed by a mock parliamentary session where all the students will have to take part either as office-bearers or members of Parliament. At the end of the Course an MCQ type examination will be held and the examination will carry 30 marks.

11. Feedback :

All the registered students will have to give their feedback on the attainment of their learning through a structured feedback form and those feedback forms will be evaluated by the teachers.

12. Awarding Certificate :

Though registration for Add-on Course is not mandatory, all the qualified participating students will be awarded with a CERTIFICATE after successful completion of the Course.

Notes :

- IV. Classes for an Add-on Course will be conducted during the reserved time slot on week days or beyond the class hours.
- V. Students will be allowed to register for only one Add-on Course in a Semester.
- VI. Students of fourth, fifth and sixth semester can opt for any of the Add-on courses offered.
