

1. Curriculum plan

The department of sociology maintains a very conducive academic environment. The faculty members provide each and guidance with regard to curriculum delivery. The class room lecture method is followed primarily. The Department takes care to intellectually assist and empower the students with various modes of teaching. We provide the students topic and faculty wise departmental schedule. We upload all class study material in whatsapp group. We organize class tests, surprise tests, student seminars and give assignments for analytical writing, conduct field surveys as a part of the practical component of research.